A PLEA FOR MORE PLAY.

There is but one redeeming feature about Puritanism, and that is the Thanksgiving holiday, which has just been celebrated. There was one day in the year in which those sour old refugees forgot to burn the witch or shoot down a fiddler, and that Thanksgiving. The holiday, with this exception, is a most un-American institution. To grub and scrape along from Monday to Saturday, and on the last day of the week to take his books home and spend the Sabbath in the beloved society of his ledger is the practice of the American merchant of the true type. If on Thanksgiving he distends his lean ribs with turkey, and crams his dyspeptic stomach with mince pie, he feels as if he is behaving as the revolutionary son of a revolutionary sire should behave. Now, the Southron, who has a dance and a blow-out about three times a week in honor of some esteemed saint, is, to my mind, a wiser man than the onefestival American. He certainly lives longer, and he has more fun in twenty-four hours than the other For Sydney and Auckland. could squeeze out of a year, and, after all, if fun combined with longevity be not the true object of existence, I'd like to know what is. We are the most beggarly nation in the world about our holidays. We begradge every moment not devoted to making our hair gray, for the sake of some one who will come after us and enjoy the results of our labors. A few centuries hence, if the world should keep on growing in thought, I feel positive that there will be but two working days in the week, and the others will be devoted to beer and skittles.-Town Crier in San Francisco News Letter.

The magnificent state of the royal baby of Spain, King Alfonso XIII, who, at 21 years, has all to himself a retinue of servants which is probably greater than that of any other infant in Western lands, was quite sur-passed by that of the Emperor of China while he was still a child. This great potentate, from his early infancy, had in his personal service more than five hundred people. What could they all be employed to do? Nobody but a member of the Chinese Court could tell the func-tions of all of the people, but the list included the following: Eighty nurses, 25 fan-bearers, 25 palanquinbearers, 10 umbrella-bearers, 30 physicians and surgeons, 7 cooks, 23 assistant cooks, 50 servants and messengers, 50 dressers (to put on and take care of the Imperial clothes), 75 astrologers, 16 governors and 60 priests. With 30 cooks and 30 doc tors, it is perhaps a wonder that Kuang Hsu, Emperor of China, has lived to be 17 years old.

The beauty of the White House for the next four years, will be Mrs. Russell Harrison, wife of the President-elect's only son. She is a young and blooming blonde, with magnificent hair and brilliant eyes. Her figure is superc, and she carries herself with a vast amount of grace and dignity. Miss Saunders was her maiden name. Russell Harrison, her husband, is a quiet, well-Cabinets $6 a doz. Work guaranteed. cressed man, exceedingly proud of his handsome wife. The young con ple are not quite as straight-laced in their ideas as Benjamin Harrison and his wife, and may be able to add an atmosphere of modernity to the social life of the White House.

Editor (writing to eminent literary man)-If you will send us a storysay 1,500 to 2,000 words we will pay you $300. You understand that it's is $295 for the use of your name and $5 for the story—our usual rates. Literary man-I regret that I have no time or inclination to write the story, but I enclose my name, which you may use, and in return send me check for $295.

The latest advices from New Bedford state: Sperm oil continues in demand and sales have been made of 1,010 barrels at 65 cents and 285 barrels of inferior quality at 60 cents for manufacture, and a resale of 500 barrels for export reported at 66 cents a gallon. Whalebone is quiet but firm. A sale has been made of 4,000 pounds new Arctic at $3 per pound. First confirmed bargain hunter-See my lovely apron; only twentyfive cents. Second C. B. H.-Why, I got one just like it for twenty-three cents. First C. B. H.—O, where, where? I must go and get one right away. I don't need any more, but one can't afford to let such bargains go, don't you know.

John Hronek, who was charged with having conspired to blow up the house of Judge Gaty, Police In-spector Bonfield and Prosecuting Attorney Grinnell of Chicago, in revenge for the execution of the Hay-market rioters' has been convicted and sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment. Napa, California, rid itself of tramps and vagrants by putting all of them detected into a chain gang.
